

Apogee Enterprises Announces New Architectural Glass Segment President

July 6, 2026

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 6, 2026-- Apogee Enterprises, Inc. (Nasdaq: APOG) announced today that Christopher W. Ede has been appointed President of the Company's Architectural Glass segment. Prior to his appointment, Ede served as Vice President, Business Development, a position he held since joining the Company in 2022.

"Chris has been an important contributor to Apogee's success through his leadership of our strategy and corporate development efforts," said Don Nolan, Apogee Executive Chair and CEO. "He has demonstrated a strong ability to identify growth opportunities, build strategic relationships, and execute acquisitions that have strengthened our portfolio. His strategic perspective, business acumen, and enterprise-wide experience position him well to lead our Architectural Glass segment and support its continued growth and operational performance."

Chris brings more than 20 years of leadership experience spanning strategy, global P&L management, mergers and acquisitions, finance, and portfolio transformation. Since joining Apogee in 2022, he has played a key role in advancing the Company's growth strategy, leading M&A efforts across the enterprise, developing a robust acquisition pipeline, and overseeing the successful acquisitions of UW Solutions and Kalwall.
